Yes.

NA doesn't ask much of us; we go to meetings, get a sponsor, do step work, and get involved in service.

There is nothing in my life that makes me unable to do this, I already go to both ASC and RSC so there is no reason not to. I love this area, this region, and this program, and I will service it in any way I know how.

Have you considered how this commitment will impact other commitments and your personal life?

Yes, it's all good, plus my personal life is pretty boring.

“Everything that occurs in the course of NA service must be motivated by the desire to more successfully carry the message of recovery to the addict who still suffers.”
